Personal data – exchanged between the Mandator and AFI and collected throughout the performance of this Mandate – are processed and stored by each contracting party in their capacity as a personal data controller, in conformity with Legislative Decree no. 196/2003 as subsequently amended and supplemented and with GDPR Regulation EU 2016/679. Personal data may be disclosed to those entities/authorities/individuals to whom such disclosure is mandatory by law as well as to companies/entities/individuals directly and/or indirectly controlled by the contracting parties or their successors. Personal data may also be transferred abroad under legal or regulatory requirements and/or for the proper fulfilment and performance of this Mandate, in accordance with the existing legislation. The Mandator hereby consents to his/her/its personal data being processed by AFI for informative, administrative purposes as well as for purposes deemed necessary for the performance of this Mandate, including the communication of personal data to third parties.

(*) Turnover is defined as turnover concerning the production of his/her/its recorded music repertoire (in exclusive ownership or in exclusive license) and/or regarding the sale of phonographic carriers (records, tapes, compact discs and similar carriers containing sound recordings as well as videograms mainly musical). Both revenues deriving from sales and any exploitation of the repertoire are included in turnover, with the sole exclusion of publishing revenues. For the same purpose, in case an Associate's catalogue is distributed by another associated record producer, turnover is deemed to be of the former (**) Copyrights are defined as remunerations - due to authors, composers and their successors for acts of mechanical exploitation of works contained in records or in other carriers – paid by SIAE or another authors and publishers collecting society, member of BIEM.
